Please choose one or more of the cases and send them a Christmas Card. They are much appreciated and also lets the authorities know that their welfare is being considered by others. Information available in the Porch.

Baptismal Talk

There will be a talk in the house at 7.30pm on Friday for those wishing to have a child baptised in St Patrick's in the coming months.

Ben View

Befriending Service

Ben View now offers a befriending service to older people in the local community. This service is aimed at tackling loneliness in later life. The service involves a volunteer making visits to an older person once a week in their own home or going on an outing to an activity of their choice. We currently need volunteers to provide this service, can you help? Also if you know someone who would benefit from this service let us know. If so please contact Alison or Lorna on 01389 733030
