ST PATRICK'S FIRST COMMUNICANTS

Our First Communicants have been preparing very well for their First Communion Day. Recently they and their parents attended an information evening in the hall, where amongst other things, they made their versions of monstrances, now displayed at the Sacred Heart Altar. This week, the children had their retreat day, where they participated in pertinent activities, including designing a ciborium and these can now be seen hanging on the church wall. The children have also written their names to introduce themselves to you and they ask that you would include them in your prayers as they prepare for the great occasion of their First Communion Day. Thank You.
